

UK Health
Security
Agency

Office for Health
Improvement
& Disparities

NHS
England

NHS

Health Education England

South West Population and Public Health Academy

Series 2, Webinar 7: Learning Disability and Autism Programme

25th October 2022 - 14:00 - 15:30

Chairs:

- Professor Maggie Rae, Head of School and Public Health Transformation, Health Education England
- Mark Cooke, SRO for Health Inequalities, Director of Strategy and Transformation, NHSEI South West

Speakers:

- Graham Carr, Head of Programme, Learning Disability and Autism Programme, NHS England South West. Overview of the Learning Disability and Autism Programme in the South West.
- Lianna Davis, Health Equality Lead, NHS England South West
- Cheryl Hampson, Senior Commissioning Manager Integrated Disabilities Commissioning Team, NHS Gloucestershire & Gloucestershire County Council
- Laurie-Ann Cook, Learning Disabilities Annual Health Check Project Manager, NHS Gloucestershire
- Dr Alison Tavaré, NHSE SW Clinical Lead for NHS@home and the South West Learning Disability Collaborative and Primary Care Clinical Lead West of England Academic Health Science Network

What will be covered?

- How Gloucestershire is working holistically as an ICS to improve the access to and quality of Learning Disability Annual Health Checks
- How working collaboratively across the South West is driving improvements in outcomes for people with a learning disability .
- Health outcomes for people with a learning disability
- Available resources for clinicians and carers including RESTORE2 tools and the RCP Acute care toolkit for people with a learning disability
- Diagnostic overshadowing
- Reasonable adjustments

Registration link:

CLICK HERE

UK Health
Security
Agency

Office for Health
Improvement
& Disparities

NHS
England

NHS

Health Education England

Learning Outcomes:

- What we know about the health inequalities faced by people with a learning disability and why accessing an annual health check is important
- How using a co-production approach can help systems with improving access to and quality of annual health checks
- Using a case study approach share the learning from co-production to inform the development of a training package for learning disabilities annual health checks
- Share examples of how systems can take a holistic view of stakeholder involvement to improving uptake and quality of annual health checks
- Increased awareness of health outcomes for people with a learning disability
- What to consider when planning services for people with a learning disability

Target Audience:

ICS Health Inequalities Leads, Community Learning Disability Teams & Primary Care Learning Disability Liaison Nurses, Social Care teams, Learning Disability commissioners, NHS (including NHSE) commissioners, NHS Community Trusts, Voluntary, Community and Social Enterprises, GPs and Primary Care teams, Quality & Service Improvement Teams, Academic Health Science Networks, Care Providers
Anyone with an interest in improving outcomes for people with a learning disability

Continued Professional Development Certificates
will be issued by Health Education England

Registration link:

CLICK HERE